

Transformers – 1.5 Hours

Description – This training module is designed to familiarize students from beginner or expert with understanding the essential elements of the many types of electrical transformers. This course qualifies for 1.5 NETA CTD credit and 1.5 CEU State of Delaware.

Buy It Now

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be qualified to:

- Understand the Transformer basics
- Identify the components of a transformer
- Understand the how a transformer operates
- Determine the differences between single and three phase
- Understand Transformer applications
- Know available options
- Recognize cooling classes
- Understand the governing standards agencies

Outline

- Transformer Basics
- Components
- How Does a Transformer Work?
- Single and Three Phase explained
- Dry Type
- Liquid Filled
- Miscellaneous Transformers
- Voltages
- Transformer Ratings
- Calculations
- Cooling Classes
- Nameplates
- New Cooling Classes
- Temperature Rise
- Cooling Ratings
- Selection Factors

